

Bikini Radar Run Racer Agreement & Fundraising Contract

This agreement outlines the expectations, rules, and fundraising requirements for all participants of the Knockers Bikini Radar Run. By signing this document, the racer acknowledges and agrees to all terms listed below.

1. Fundraising Requirements

- All funds raised must be turned in via CASHIER'S CHECK made payable to "Knockers Bikini Radar Run."
- Cash will be accepted only on the day of the event and only prior to the official cutoff time.
- Personal checks, personal electronic transfers, or third-party payment methods will not be accepted for final fundraising totals. Unless communicated in advance.

2. Marketing, Promotion & Social Media

- Racers agree to follow the official marketing and social media guidelines provided by the Knockers Bikini Radar Run.
- All promotional posts must be respectful, accurate, and aligned with the event's mission and approved messaging.
- Racers may not create misleading, harmful, or unsafe marketing content.

3. Safety Rules

- All participants must follow all safety rules established by the event organizers and track officials.
- Track staff have full authority to approve or deny any run for safety-related reasons.
- Failure to follow safety rules may result in disqualification from the event.

4. Use of Funds & Personal Gain

- Racers may not raise or request sponsorship money for personal gain.
- Funds raised may NOT be used for personal expenses, i.e. sled building, equipment purchases, or upgrades.
- Sponsorship or fundraiser money may only be collected for the sole purpose of benefiting the approved event charities.

5. Separation of Fundraising Activities

- Funds raised for the Knockers Bikini Radar Run must remain separate from fundraising for any other events or organizations.
- Racers must clearly communicate that all donations collected under this event are exclusively for the designated charities.

6. Non-Attendance Requirements

- If a racer is unable to attend the event due to unforeseen circumstances, all charitable funds raised must still be submitted.
- In cases of non-attendance, all fundraising monies must be sent directly to Knockers Bikini Radar Run no later than the event day, unless communicated in advance.

7. Acknowledgment & Signature
